ABSTRACT

This report examines student charges at public, four-year institutions throughout the United States based on the responses from a survey of 513 responding institutions. Statistical data are presented in the appendix comprising nearly the entire report. Major findings include the following items: (1) the overall fall 1992 resident undergraduate tuition and fees increased by 10.4 percent--down from the 13.6 percent increase experienced in fall 1991; (2) graduate tuition and fees for residents increased by 11.7 percent, with charges at National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges (NASULGC) members increasing at 11.8 percent; (3) room and board charges increased 4.7 percent between 1991 and 1992, down from the 6.0 percent increase between fall 1990 and fall 1991; (4) the largest increases in tuition and fees were experienced in California (29 percent), Puerto Rico (28.3 percent), New York (19.8 percent), Texas (19.1 percent), and Montana (18.2 percent); and (5) the lowest increases in tuition and fees were experienced in Guam (0.7 percent), Arizona (1.3 percent), Oklahoma (1.4 percent), Louisiana (1.5 percent), and Hawaii (2.8 percent). Three-quarters of the respondents reported receiving greater numbers of aid requests and 66.2 percent of the respondents added that students requesting aid were asking for more money. (GLR)

Annual NASULGC/AASCU Survey of Student Charges at Public, Four-Year Institutions

Summary

The fall 1992 Annual Survey of Student Charges at Public, Four-Year Institutions is a joint project of the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges (NASULGC) and the American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU). A total of 513 institutions responded, including 107 NASULGC members, 307 AASCU members, 20 joint NASULGC/AASCU members, and 79 non-affiliated institutions.

The major findings are:

The overall fall 1992 resident undergraduate tuition and fees at public, four-year colleges and universities increased by 10.4 percent--down from the 13.6 percent increase experienced in fall 1991. NASULGC institutions underwent an increase of 10.7 percent.

Graduate tuition and fees for residents increased by 11.7 percent, with charges at NASULGC institutions increasing at 11.8 percent.

Room and board charges increased 4.7 percent between 1991 and 1992, down from the 6.0 percent increase between fall 1990 and fall 1991. NASULGC institutions experienced an increase of 5.7 percent.

California (29.0 percent), Puerto Rico (28.3 percent), New York (19.8 percent), Texas (19.1 percent), and Montana (18.2 percent) experienced the largest increases in average tuition and fees. Guam (0.7 percent), Arizona (1.3 percent), Oklahoma (1.4 percent), Louisiana (1.5 percent), and Hawaii (2.8 percent) had the lowest increases.

Three-quarters of the respondents reported that they were receiving a greater number of aid requests, and another 15.8 percent indicated that this was likely to occur. In addition, 66.2 percent of the respondents said that students who were requesting aid were seeking more money. Faculty positions were left unfilled at 38.4 percent of the campuses, and another 19.5 percent thought this was likely to happen.

Because the survey encourages respondents to correct the previous year's data, there are slight variations every year in the average charges shown for a given year. Average room and average board charges sometimes differ slightly from the reported combined room and board charge. These differences can be attributed to the effects of rounding.
